1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me."
Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve."

- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

PASTOR NOTE

We have entered the holy season of Lent. Every year we enter Lent. I hope and pray that this Lent will be different. I hope and pray that we will go deeper into this holy season. I hope that we take on extra penances like giving up something that takes some effort but is not impossible to achieve. I hope that we will take on extra ways of prayer and devotions such as attending one of the daily Masses, attending Eucharistic Adoration, joining together for the Stations of the Cross, making a visit to the Adoration chapel, praying the rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet, or praying some devotions as a family. Lent is a time of conversion which ought to include making a good confession. Lent is a time to live our faith more seriously. May we all rise to the occasion.

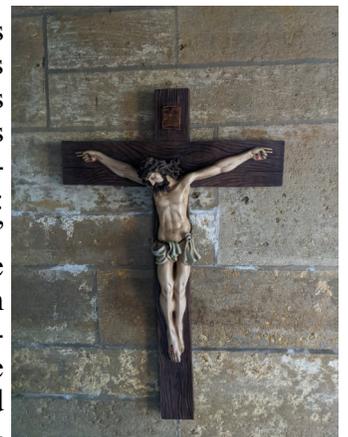

There is still time for you to sign up for one of the Lenten Small Groups. This is a parish-wide Lenten activity. The groups will spend about an hour reflecting on the Gospel reading of that week. I am truly happy that over 100 people have signed up for one of 17 small groups. These small groups will begin meeting this week. If you are interested in joining one of these groups, please call the office to reserve your spot. It is my prayer that these groups will bring people into a deeper relationship with Jesus. I also pray that many more people will join in this Lenten experience.

Lent is also a time when people complete their preparations for entering into the Church. God has blessed our parish with two people who have been preparing to enter the Church. I am very pleased to introduce Chaz Williams and Sophia Rucinski. Both have been in our parish RCIA program. They will enter the Church and our parish at the Easter Vigil next month. As part of their preparation, they attended the Rite of Election at the Cathedral in Peoria. This is an ancient ritual of the Church. In the presence of our Bishop, they publicly expressed their intention to enter the Church. They then received the Bishop's blessing. I encourage you to pray for Chaz and Sophia as they continue their preparations. May God strengthen their resolve to receive the sacraments of the Church.

NOURISHED IN SPIRIT BY MSGR. KRUSE

"Father, forgive them, they do not know what they do." (Luke 23:34). Imagine all of the suffering that our Lord endured: the blood-sweating agony in the garden, the arrest, the denial and betrayal of friends, the bogus lie-filled trial, the beatings, scourging, the crown of thorns, the heavy cross, the falls, the loss of blood, the emotional trauma, and then the nails! Finally, they lifted His battered body and His weight pulled at the nail wounds. Through all of this our Lord was silent and filled with patient endurance. After all of the horrific agony, He finally opened His mouth and spoke: no reviles, no curses, no condemnation. Instead, Jesus said, "Forgive." Jesus was not simply speaking forgiveness to the Roman executioners nor to the Jewish leaders. He forgave them and all of us. It was, of course, for all of our sins that He suffered. Start to finish, Christ's entire mission was to bring forgiveness and mercy. Notice how the crucified Jesus exercised His priestly role as intercessor before the Father. Not only did Jesus personally forgive, but He begged the Father to forgive us. Jesus remains for all time as the one intercessor before the Father, begging mercy for sinners (cf. Heb. 7:25). Not only did He beg mercy, but He made excuses: "They do not know what they do." Jesus pleaded humanity's case. We are ignorant and stupid for choosing sin. If only we knew that it would lead to His crucifixion. We stupidly forget that the wages of sin are death – not only our own death, but the death of our Savior.

From the depths of His soul, at the climax of His earthly mission, Jesus pleaded for us, stood as our advocate, and pronounced a divine decree: "Father, forgive them." And, He did. He forgave us on that day and down through the ages, even until today. In baptism we taste this forgiveness and it is renewed in the sacrament of confession where we hear Christ, the eternal High Priest, speak through His ordained priest, "Your sins are forgiven, go in peace!"

FOOD PANTRY UPDATE: Last weekend the Knights of Columbus collected 168 nonperishable food items and $995 in monetary donations for the Bureau County Food Pantry. A large majority of the items were from the high need category. We all see the effects of inflation every time we shop. The food insecure find their buying power significantly effected and are turning to pantries like ours to supplement what they need to feed their families. Seniors on a fixed incomes are suffering as well. St. Louis parishioners have now contributed 23,765 nonperishable food items and $125,340 in monetary donations to the Bureau County Food Pantry. Many thanks to all of you who continue to give so generously.

CROWN OF THORNS FOR LENT

Barb Grebner has generously made 50 crown of thorns and donated them to our parish family for Lent. The crowns are available to be picked up outside Harkrader Hall. If you would like to make your own at home, Barb has provided the recipe below.

The crown of thorns is used as a table center piece with an empty jar or container nearby. For every sacrifice, good deed, corporal or spiritual work of mercy, one thorn should be removed from the crown and placed in the jar. The goal is for all of the thorns to be removed by Easter. Then, before the children wake up on Easter morning, all of the thorns in the jar should be replaced by jelly beans or some other favorite candies.

Recipe for crown of thorns

- Use A 2-1 ratio of flour to salt and add water or cold coffee (for color, if desired) until dough is moist and pliable.
- Divide dough into three equal parts. Roll each part into equal lengths. Braid these strands of dough and connect the ends to form a circle.
- Meanwhile, soak a good number of toothpicks in vegetable oil until saturated.
- Insert the toothpicks all around the crown.
- Bake the crown with the inserted toothpicks at 350 degrees until firm (roughly 15-20 minutes). Make sure to remove the crown from the oven before it gets extremely hard (otherwise the toothpicks will be very difficult to remove).

All High School students are invited to Youth Group Night

During Lent we will meet every Sunday from 6-7:30 pm

We will meet in the Youth Group Room for a short bible study, followed by games and prayer time.
